5 Broken Cameras is a deeply personal, firsthand account of non-violent resistance in Bil'in, a West Bank village threatened by encroaching Israeli settlements.

The film was shot by Palestinian farmer Emad Burnat, and edited with the help of Israeli director Guy Davidi.

Following the film at E Street Cinema, Stephen Stern, J Street DC Metro Education and Programs Chair will lead a discussion with ATFP Senior Fellow Hussein Ibish and Howard Sumka (former USAID West Bank and Gaza Chief), representing the Greenhouse Initiative, which gave major development assistance to the filmmakers.
