A: All forms of support are welcome. Everyone is invited to call the ATFP office and inquire about what kind of support each individual or group might be best able to provide to the Task Force to help it pursue its mission. From the outset, ATFP has relied on its supporters around the country, as well as volunteers and interns. [2] We appreciate their generosity. But an extraordinarily large amount of work remains undone. We need your help and your support.

ATFP urges all Arab-Americans and others who sympathize or agree with its policies and approach to speak up publicly in support of us and the organization. Even rhetorical support is very important and greatly appreciated. Moreover, ATFP warmly welcomes all forms of support, including pro bono efforts, in-kind contributions, volunteer work and, of course, financial donations. [3]

ATFP seeks to build a network of people who support its mission and goals, and who are interested in advocacy for a two-state solution between Israel and the Palestinians. If you would like to add your name to our contact list, click here. [4] If you would like to volunteer to set up local events, panels, discussions, seminars, meet with us in your local area or so forth, ATFP staff and leaders would be grateful for the opportunity. Please contact our office [5] directly to schedule such events and conversations. ATFP would also warmly welcome information about and contact with successful, engaged Palestinian Americans around the country whose work and contributions can be honored or otherwise made an even greater part of the mainstreaming process. If you are, or know of, an accomplished or distinguished Palestinian American in any field that might be interested in being in touch with ATFP, please let us know so we can be in contact, expand our network and promote their achievements.

If you have any questions, suggestions or requests, please contact us directly [5]. To contribute to ATFP's invaluable work, click here. [3] To inquire about other forms of support, please call the ATFP office at 202-887-0177 or email info@atfp.net [6].
